The President's Commission on Executive Exchange THE WHITE HOUSE

February 3, 1987

Dear Mr. Gates:

I am inviting you to nominate one or more exceptional Federal executives for participation in the 1987-1988 President's Commission on Executive Exchange. The President continues to have a strong personal interest in improving communication between the public and private sectors. A key ingredient in his strategy is to have an elite corps of outstanding managers working for a year in the opposite sector from the one in which they have gained their career experience to date. Under this approach, an executive from the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) will spend a year with a private company and return to the CIA with new skills and an enriched appreciation for the relationship between business and government.

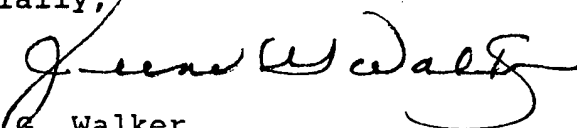

This year the commission is seeking one or more outstanding executives from the CIA to serve for one year in the private sector. Our experience indicates that successful placement with a private company requires us to limit nomination to only those career executives who meet the following criteria:

- Nominees must be members of the Senior Executive Service (SES) or equivalent system, participating in a SES candidate development program or exceptional GM-15 managers who will be candidates for SES positions in the near future.
- Nominees should have skills and experience that are transferable to the private sector. The current skills in demand in the private sector include financial analysis, international relations, engineering, computer science and long range strategic planning.
- To derive the maximum benefit from this exchange, nominees are expected to have had little prior private sector work experience.
- Nominees must be willing to relocate outside of Washington for an assignment that will begin about October 1, 1987.

Please forward your nominations to me no later than April 3, 1987. I am enthusiastic about placing one or two of your key executives in private sector positions that will contribute to their development and the skills available to the CIA when they return.

Cordially,
